While We Watched and Waited

Silence was broken by the construction workers shortly after the students left on the last day of school in May of '57. They began leveling off the ground, which was to serve as the foundation for the new addition to the school. They worked long, hard hours all summer and by the time school started they were ready to fix the roof. After this was done and the weather turned bad they began to work on the interior of the building.

Everything was running right on schedule and then in January came the almost fatal blow to Roanoke's new school. A salamander was knocked over which started a fire. It was then that the Roanoke Volunteer Fire Department came on the scene and extinguished the flames as shown on the opposite page. This set work back about one month. The building was scheduled to be done in March and we were to move in. But as a result of the fire, the building wasn't done and we didn't get to move in. Next fall the students of R.H.S. will get to move into their long awaited new school.

The new building will have many fine facilities. It includes an excellent laboratory, a modern, well stocked library, a photographic dark room, a medical clinic, new offices for the principal and his staff and a locker for every student. In addition to all this there are eight modern classrooms.

Tears and Cheers on the Court - - -

Through a suspension stricken season the Stonewalls managed to come out on top with a respectable 14-8 record.

The first 15 games the Stonewalls managed an 8-7 record before finally getting hot and winning six games in a row.

In the sectional after drawing a bye and beating Jefferson, they cooled off completely, hitting but .181 from the field in the semi-finals against Huntington and losing to them by eight points.

The team will lose seven men via graduation but we here at R.H.S. are still looking forward to a fine 58-59 season.

Hard Work Backstage - - -

Jean Stabler, Marjorie Merckx, Judy Schenkel.

Ted Garstka, Steve Williams, and Gary Hartley were busy this year with rub downs, caring for the uniforms, and faithfully following their team.

Steve has completed his third year as manager while Gary has been with the team one year and Ted, two years and a half. We think their job has been very successfully filled — forgetting * ? + ; tempers ! !

2nd row—Coach Melson, M. Colclesser, P. Zent, D. Thomas, B. Crabbs, J. Stump, C. Markley.

In the first year of the Summer Baseball League the Stonewalls fought an uphill battle to win the championship.

After losing two of their first 3 games the Stonewalls then won 6 games in a row to win the championship from Jefferson in the playoffs.

In the fall baseball season the Stonewalls faltered twice during the season and wound up in a four-way for the Conference Crown.

After defeating Lancaster 6-3 in the first game of the playoffs, an error filled game with Clear Creek cost them the title as they bowed to their lucky rivals.

Outfielder Jim Quickery connects for a hard hit double.

Winning Ribbons on the Cinders - - -

The 1957 track picture wasn't too bright as the Roanoke road-runners managed to win but one of four track meets.

The bright side of the track season, was individual performances at the County Track meet as they capped third place.

Rex Kaufman set a county record of 16.3 in the high hurdles and Harold Whitfield swept both dashes for three first places.

Other point winners in the county were:

P. Welker	2nd	Shot

R. Ottinger	5th	100 Yd. Dash

The B team using players to take up the slack on the suspension stricken varsity ended the season with a 5-15 record.

Going full strength during the B team tourney they were nosed out by Huntington Catholic, the eventual tourney champs in a double overtime.

Although they didn't compile a great record this year, some fine talent was developed to move up to the varsity next year.

The Stonewalls Jr. High team ended the season with a medium record of 7 wins and 8 losses but bounced back to win a four-way tourney by defeating Clear Creek and Bippus to end the year with a 9-8 record.

Mark Welker paced the team to a winning season by averaging 9.1 points a game.

Coach Bill McPherren should be congratulated on the fine job he does every year and everyone is looking forward to another winning season from them next year.

Made "Moments to Remember"

Last but not least, by all means, in the sports section are the fans who cheered the teams on through thick and thin all year. They are pictured here preparing for the Sectional. During the tourney they wore green derbys, white shirts and blouses, and white gloves. Although the semi-finals brought disappointment, bright faces and hearty cheers were common examples of the sportsmanship displayed by RHS backers.

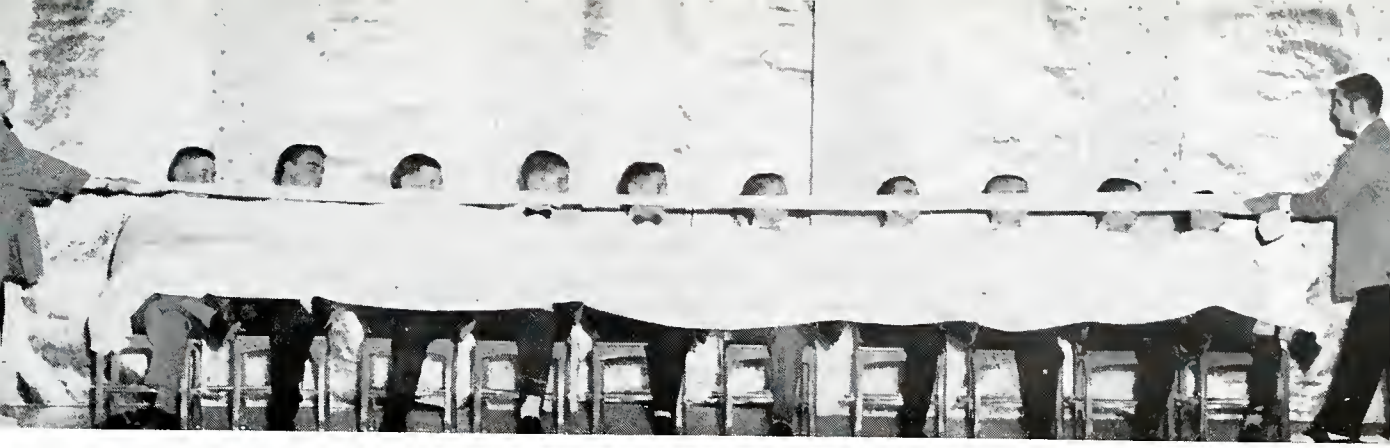
We Had "A Wonderful Time up There"

POTPOURRI — (po per e) meaning a mixture of herbs and spices, was the name chosen for the 1957 Spring Revue. Potpourri drew the largest crowd on record.

Each class participated to help carry out the theme.

Master of Ceremonies, Phil Welker, crowning Judith Eisenhut, the queen of the 1957 spring Potpourri.

Crownbearer Deborah Clark and her escort Tommy Brewer.



Shave 'n haircut — two bits. By 7th & 8th grade boys.

Old King Cole was one of the many nursery rhymes portrayed by grades one and two.

The American Patrol soldiers, Nancy Swihart, Jean Stabler and Ruth Ann Thomas added a military bit to the show.

The grand finale of Potpourri was highlighted by the crowning of the queen and the presentation of her court.

Babette Miller and her escort Dick Funderburg were crowned King and Queen of the annual Sweetheart Dance held on February 15, 1958. The theme of the dance was "Swinging Sweethearts." To carry out the theme the room was decorated in red and white crepe paper with red and white hearts swinging in the air suspended from the ceiling. The finale of the dance was the Grand March led by Mr. and Mrs. Hinton.

At Our "Fantabulous" Reception - - -

Our junior year reception was held in the beautiful Honeywell Memorial Community Center in Wabash, Indiana.

The decorations consisted of blue and silver floral programs with large bouquets of blue carnations, in honor of the graduating class, mixed with our class flower, pink roses.

After a delicious candle light dinner, we entertained our guests with a stage presentation of "Flibbertigibbet" presented by the drama club of Manchester College.

The Junior & Senior Reception was held at the Honeywell Memorial building in Wabash on May 3, 1957. Later everyone joined at North Manchester for a play.

At Assembly Programs

The purpose of this organization is to assist upon the principal's request in supervision or disciplinary problems. To create pride in one's school and respect for property of others. To suggest to authorities improvements in the school which to the council seem advisable. To permit the students to have a more democratic part in their school. To promote better understanding between teachers and students.

The major project of the student council this year was the sponsoring of the assembly programs. This took much thought and careful planning to choose programs everyone would enjoy.

Working on

Bill Jackson, a Dr. of Philosophy was engaged to Angela Warren. Her uncle, Henry Dodson, thought Bill was a M.D. He said he would give them $50,000 for the first life he saved.

Then a demented patient rushed into Dodson's hospital room and tried to stab him. Bill came in just in time to save his life, which won him the $50,000.

There also were the antics of Puckett and Dodson which kept things in a continuous uproar. Puckett, jolly and extremely mischievous, and Dodson, wealthy, crabby and over-bearing, kept the hospital staff in hot water from the start to finish.

Look at that man over there — He's baldheaded, just like Grandpa.

Oh, this is two-five-nought. See? So sorry!

And at Our 5 (?) Minute Breaks

For our second adventure in drama we chose the comedy "Good Night Ladies." The three act comedy featured a cast of twelve members centering around the financial difficulties of the Raleigh family who were forced into turning their home near Grayson College into a girls dormitory.

Flora and Barbara, Jane and Helen Raleigh's aunts, are selected as house matrons. When they did not arrive on schedule for their interview with near-sighted Dean Eggleby, the girls persuaded their brother, Sam Raleigh and Jane's steady boyfriend, Jug Brown, to masquerade as their aunts.

Many humorous events, such as Barbara's skirt descending to display her fancy bloomers, occurred to add humor to the play.

And at P. T. A. Functions

One of the functional organizations at R.H.S. is the Parent Teachers Association.

The principal activity of the P.T.A. each year is the penny supper held in the school gymnasium. The group is primary in the smooth operation between the school and the home.

Mrs. Dillman 1957-58 president of the PTA, acts as teacher in a skit with parents as bright looking pupils.

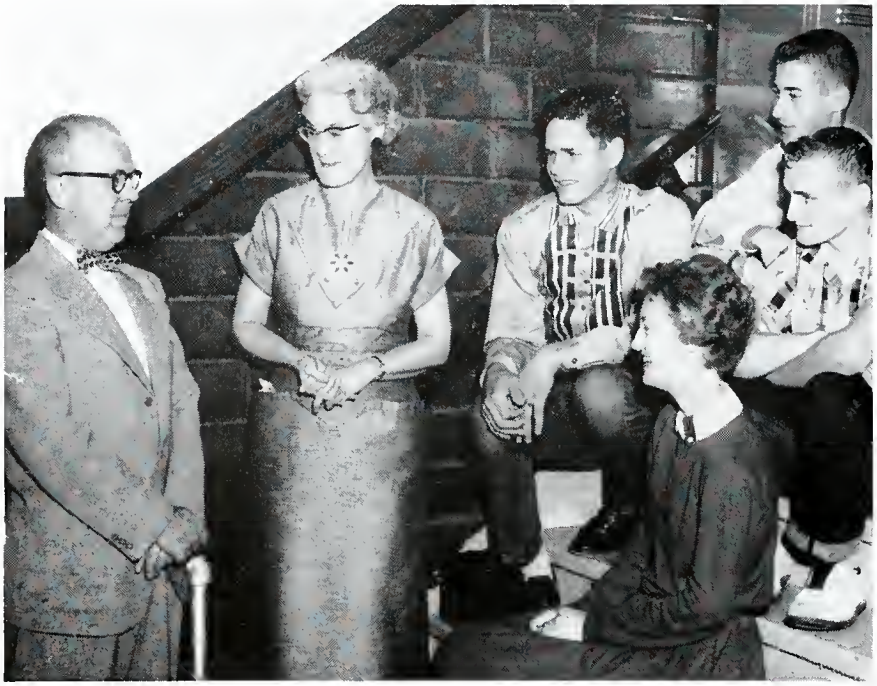
Candy Room Capers - - -



Officers and Sponsors: Mr. Rogers, Mrs. Henning, N. Balliet, Treas.; M. Merckx, Sec.; T. Garstka, Pres.; H. Young, Vice Pres.

To get the year off to a rolling start we received our class rings and got our magazine sales campaign under way during the first week of school. The candy room was a huge success! A lot of fun and a lot of work went into presenting our play. We had a reception for the seniors. The year went all too fast but the memories will never be forgotten.

We held the annual fish fry which was a success. We had a theatre party and saw "April Love" starring Pat Boone. We sold streamers for both tourneys. A big event for us was ordering our class rings. Now we are anxiously awaiting to see what fate holds for us as Juniors.

Hey! - Where Do We Go Now?

We were very excited to come into the 7th grade. It was a new adventure for us to be on the high school side. We had a Christmas Party in the music room. We also enjoyed a theater party in Fort Wayne.
